

LAPTOP COMPUTER USE

Laptop computers that require electrical power may be used only within designated areas of the library. Laptop computers that do not require electrical power may be used anywhere in the library. Under no circumstances may customers hook-up their laptop computer into the library's computer network. The library assumes no responsibility for any loss or damage to personal laptops while on library premise.