Sound of Gravel – Ruth Wariner

Ruth Wariner was born her mother's fourth child and her father's thirty-ninth. This memoir is her coming-of-age story set in a belief system so fanatical that life beyond its clutches seems impossible to imagine – until Ruth realizes it would be more impossible to stay. The path she chooses is an affirmation of her mother's limitless love; and the bond she forges with her sisters one fateful night propels them toward a new life that will leave readers awed and inspired.

MEMOIR; FAMILY; COMING OF AGE

Truly Madly Guilty – Liane Moriarty

IF ONLY THEY'D SAID NO... Clementine is haunted by regret. It was just a barbecue. They didn't even know their hosts that well, they were friends of friends. They could so easily have said no.

CONTEMPORARY FICTION; DOMESTIC LIFE

Turner House – Angela Flournoy

For over fifty years the Turners have lived on Yarrow Street. Their house has seen thirteen children get grown and gone—and some return; it has seen the arrival of grandchildren, the fall of Detroit's East Side, and the loss of a father. But when their powerful mother falls ill, the Turners are called home to decide their house's fate and to reckon with how their past haunts—and shapes—their future. The Turner House is a striking examination of the price we pay for our dreams, and the ways in which our families bring us home.

LITERARY FICTION; AFRICAN AMERICAN; FAMILY LIFE

Vanessa and Her Sister- Priya Parmar

London, 1905: The city is alight with change, and the Stephen siblings are at the forefront. Vanessa, Virginia, Thoby, and Adrian are leaving behind their childhood home and taking a house in the leafy heart of avant-garde Bloomsbury. The work of exciting young newcomer Priya Parmar, Vanessa and Her Sister exquisitely captures the champagne-heady days of prewar London and the extraordinary lives of sisters Vanessa Bell and Virginia Woolf.

HISTORICAL FICTION

A Walk in the Woods – Bill Bryson

Bill Bryson introduces us to the history and ecology of the trail and to some of the other hardy (or just foolhardy) folks he meets along the way—and a couple of bears. Already a classic, A Walk in the Woods will make you long for the great outdoors (or at least a comfortable chair to sit and read in).

TRAVEL; HIKING AND CAMPING

War and Turpentine– Stefan Hertmans

A novel about a Flemish man who reconstructs his grandfather’s story – his hopes, loves and art, all disrupted by the First World War – from the unflinching notebooks he filled with pieces of his life.

FICTION; WWI

What Was Mine – Helen Klein Ross

Simply told but deeply affecting, this urgent novel unravels the heartrending yet unsentimental tale of a woman who kidnaps a baby in a superstore—and gets away with it for twenty-one years.

PSYCHOLOGICAL THRILLER

Wilde Lake – Helen Klein Ross

As Luisa “Lu” Brant prepares for her first trial as newly elected state’s attorney, the case dredges up painful memories, reminding her family of the night when her brother, AJ, saved his best friend at the cost of another man’s life. Only eighteen at the time, AJ was found to have acted in self-defense. Now Lu wonders if the events of 1980 happened as she remembers them. If there is such a thing as the whole truth, Lu realizes – possibly too late – that she would be better off not knowing what it is.

PSYCHOLOGICAL THRILLER; SUSPENSE
